Disclaimer Notice to the students regarding campus placement

Sidho-Kanho-Birsha University is presently striving for campus placement drive for our own Students. It is hereby informed to all concerned that we have a little scope to screen employers, work environment, labour practices, products, or services and other related issues. It is not feasible as well as responsibility for the University to verify the capacity, eligibility and modus operandi of any company/organization. Hence University cannot be held responsible for any inconsistencies or errors in this regard. Sidho-Kanho Birsha University does not warrant the legitimacy of any of the information in the posting, including the company and the position itself. It is the responsibility of each applicant and or their parent/guardian to review and research each employment opportunity prior to joining the company.

It is not the role of the Sidho-Kanho Birsha University to monitor the operational practices of companies. It is the responsibility of the candidates, parents/guardians for their best interest, to verify the terms and conditions of employment, job environment whatsoever the case may be with the employer before joining of any organization.
