

National Seminar on India's Regional Diplomacy in South Asia with special reference to Bhutan on February 5, 2019.

Papers within 2000 words (in New Times Roman & Microsoft Word File) are invited for submission for presentation in the seminar via mail gouri.s.nag@gmail.com & last date for full paper submission: January 24, 2019.

Sub Themes:

- (i) Bhutan as India's most trusted partner in South Asia,
- (ii) India's Constructive Role in Development of Bhutan,
- (iii) Bhutan's progressive transition to Democracy and its implications for India and South Asian region at large,
- (iv) China as a factor in India-Bhutan Relations,
- (v) Tracing Buddhism as a cultural connect between India and Bhutan and other institutional nodes of such cooperation,
- (vi) Any aspect relevant to the dynamics of bilateral camaraderie and India's regional diplomacy in South Asia.

Registration Fee: Rs. 250/- for Full-time College Teachers, Rs. 150/-for guest faculties in colleges, research scholars and former students and Rs. 100/- for current students.

No TA & DA for the participants. However, lodging facility will be provided for the outstation paper presenters free of cost.

Contact : Dr. G. S. Nag, convener of the seminar (Mob 9477110405).